

ARKANSAS LEGISLATORS, INDICTED FOR BRIBERY, CHARGE POLITICAL MOTIVES

Senator Covington Defies Prosecuting Attorney to Produce Any Evidence Incriminating Him and Demands Early Trial—Change of Venue in Some Cases May Be Asked—Andrews Explains

ENTIRE STATE ANXIOUSLY AWAITING RESULT OF TRIAL

REPRESENTATIVE GEO. F. CHARLIERE, ARKANSAS.

JAMES S. WILSON, REPRESENTATIVE FROM PERRY COUNTY.

any merit. He said that he voted to take the leave bill from the table, when it was promised to be reintroduced in the newspaper bill. He declared that he was not pledged to support the leave bill, having only agreed to assist in taking it from the table.

Representative George F. Charlier, whose home is at Clarkton, asserts his innocence, and has retained several able attorneys to conduct his defense.

Senator H. K. Toney and A. T. Gross have refrained from giving out any extended statement, contenting themselves with a denial of the charges against them and an expression of confidence in their acquittal.

Senator A. W. Rison declares that his arrest, as well as that of others, is a political move on the part of high officials. There is absolutely no truth in the charge, he declared, that he is a member of certain politicians in high places.

Representative J. T. Wilson of Perry county, who came prominently into the public eye as the man whose testimony led to several indictments, indignantly repudiated the charge that there is political motive back of his arrest. Wilson says:

After reading quite a lengthy account of the arrest of Representative J. T. Wilson, I feel it my duty to state that I am innocent of the charge made by the State.

Representative Lewis Rison, who is charged with the same offense, also repudiated the charge that he is a member of certain politicians in high places.

Representative J. T. Wilson of Perry county, who came prominently into the public eye as the man whose testimony led to several indictments, indignantly repudiated the charge that there is political motive back of his arrest.

Representative George F. Charlier, whose home is at Clarkton, asserts his innocence, and has retained several able attorneys to conduct his defense.

Senator H. K. Toney and A. T. Gross have refrained from giving out any extended statement, contenting themselves with a denial of the charges against them and an expression of confidence in their acquittal.

Senator A. W. Rison declares that his arrest, as well as that of others, is a political move on the part of high officials.

Representative J. T. Wilson of Perry county, who came prominently into the public eye as the man whose testimony led to several indictments, indignantly repudiated the charge that there is political motive back of his arrest.

Representative Lewis Rison, who is charged with the same offense, also repudiated the charge that he is a member of certain politicians in high places.

Representative George F. Charlier, whose home is at Clarkton, asserts his innocence, and has retained several able attorneys to conduct his defense.

Senator H. K. Toney and A. T. Gross have refrained from giving out any extended statement, contenting themselves with a denial of the charges against them and an expression of confidence in their acquittal.

Senator A. W. Rison declares that his arrest, as well as that of others, is a political move on the part of high officials.

Murphy 1, Hickman 1, Coughlin 1, Three-base hits—Hickman 1, Coughlin 1, Murphy 1. Double plays—Lowe and Schrock. 3 runs, 2 hits, 2 errors. Time of game, 2 hours and 15 minutes. Umpires—Kiley and McCarthy.

Table with columns for Boston, Cleveland, and scores for various teams.

Table with columns for Boston, Cleveland, and scores for various teams.

Table with columns for Boston, Cleveland, and scores for various teams.

Table with columns for Boston, Cleveland, and scores for various teams.

Table with columns for Boston, Cleveland, and scores for various teams.

Table with columns for Boston, Cleveland, and scores for various teams.

Table with columns for Boston, Cleveland, and scores for various teams.

Table with columns for Boston, Cleveland, and scores for various teams.

Table with columns for Boston, Cleveland, and scores for various teams.

Table with columns for Boston, Cleveland, and scores for various teams.

Table with columns for Boston, Cleveland, and scores for various teams.

Table with columns for Boston, Cleveland, and scores for various teams.

Table with columns for Boston, Cleveland, and scores for various teams.

Table with columns for Boston, Cleveland, and scores for various teams.

Table with columns for Boston, Cleveland, and scores for various teams.

Table with columns for Boston, Cleveland, and scores for various teams.

Table with columns for Boston, Cleveland, and scores for various teams.

Advertisement for J. F. Dailey & Co. featuring diamonds on credit, watches on credit, and four opening specials. Includes images of jewelry and prices like $10.00, $25.00, and $100.00.

With the passage of millions upon millions of dollars out of a lot of horses assigned to the track, the public has been misled.

McKittick Wins Republic Cap. McKittick of the Chicago Cubs yesterday defeated Jesse Crawford of the Cleveland Indians in the final game for the title of champion of the Republic.

Chicago 5, Washington 1. Washington, June 10.—Washington led to day's game in the ninth inning, making the final score 5-1.

Chicago 7, Boston 3. Chicago, June 10.—Chicago won today's game in the ninth inning, making the final score 7-3.

St. Louis 4, Cleveland 2. St. Louis, June 10.—St. Louis won today's game in the ninth inning, making the final score 4-2.

St. Louis 3, Boston 2. St. Louis, June 10.—St. Louis won today's game in the ninth inning, making the final score 3-2.

St. Louis 2, Boston 1. St. Louis, June 10.—St. Louis won today's game in the ninth inning, making the final score 2-1.

St. Louis 1, Boston 0. St. Louis, June 10.—St. Louis won today's game in the ninth inning, making the final score 1-0.

St. Louis 0, Boston 0. St. Louis, June 10.—St. Louis won today's game in the ninth inning, making the final score 0-0.

St. Louis 0, Boston 0. St. Louis, June 10.—St. Louis won today's game in the ninth inning, making the final score 0-0.

St. Louis 0, Boston 0. St. Louis, June 10.—St. Louis won today's game in the ninth inning, making the final score 0-0.

St. Louis 0, Boston 0. St. Louis, June 10.—St. Louis won today's game in the ninth inning, making the final score 0-0.

Advertisement for 'WOMAN'S BREAST' cancer treatment. Claims to cure cancer with a lump in the breast. Includes a diagram of a breast with a cancerous lump and text: 'I will give $1000 if I fail to cure any cancer I treat, before it poisons the deep glands or attaches to bone.'

TO SELL JEWELRY ON CREDIT. New Establishment of J. F. Dailey & Co. Will Be at Sixth and Washington Avenue.

DOCTOR MORDECAI YARNALL DIES AFTER LONG ILLNESS. Was Former Professor of Gerontology at St. John's Hospital—Funeral To-Morrow.

OBITUARY. EDWIN JOHNSON. Harrison, Ill., June 10.—The body of Edwin Johnson, who died in Chicago yesterday, will be taken to Harrison this morning and will be buried to-morrow. Mr. Johnson formerly was in the drug business in this city.

WEDDINGS. DAVID MARRIS. Marshall, Mo., June 10.—Mr. John M. Marris and Miss Anna Marris of Marshall were married here to-day.

TO GIVE MOONLIGHT SOCIAL. The members of the Young Men's Hebrew Association will give a moonlight social and dance at Schoenau's Grove Tuesday evening. Arrangements have been completed to have refreshments on the grounds.

IN MEMORIAM. In the last meeting of the Young Men's Hebrew Association a resolution of sympathy was passed regarding the death of Edwin Harrison, who for many years was a member of the board and chairman of the Executive Committee.

Continuation of the Arkansas legislators article, including details of the trial, the role of the prosecuting attorney, and the reactions of the public and the press.

Continuation of the Arkansas legislators article, including details of the trial, the role of the prosecuting attorney, and the reactions of the public and the press.

Continuation of the Arkansas legislators article, including details of the trial, the role of the prosecuting attorney, and the reactions of the public and the press.

Continuation of the Arkansas legislators article, including details of the trial, the role of the prosecuting attorney, and the reactions of the public and the press.

Advertisement for 'BLOOD POISON' and 'MAN'S GREATEST ENEMY'. Claims to cure blood poisoning and other ailments. Includes text: 'The disease that has done more than any other to wreck, ruin and humiliate life is Contagious Blood Poison.'

Continuation of the Arkansas legislators article, including details of the trial, the role of the prosecuting attorney, and the reactions of the public and the press.